Home of the Chokers

We offer our sincerest congratulations to Dr. George L. Hall on his new post in Bolivia. His term as president has seen Grays Harbor College grow and make plans for a new building. To our favorite Choker, we dedicate this book.

Sophomore Class

Betty Jean Marcussen, Secretary; Ron Bridges, Vice President;
Ken Trautman, President

Among the highlights of the Sophomore's final year was the annual Homecoming bonfire. Overcoming almost overwhelming odds the mighty Sophomores were successful in lighting the fire. Also noteworthy was the fact that as Freshmen this group was successful in defending the fire for the first time in the history of this annual event.

This class not only earned a name for itself in the fields of athletics and dramatics, but its members also played an important part in the success of the forensics team which rated nationally.

Freshman Class

Though new to college life, the Freshman Class did an outstanding job of taking its place in college activities and buckling down to studies. The names of Freshman occupying places on the honor roll and the lists of athletic stars, as well as in the play cast, are numerous.

The Chokers ended this season with three wins and six losses. Winning the first three conference games, the Chokers looked promising, but injuries and lack of reserve strength caused them to lose the remaining games.

On To Kansas

The 1951—52 Grays Harbor College basketball team and the feats that it performed on the maple court will be remembered by sports fans of this vicinity for a long time. This squad was considered one of the best hoop aggregations to ever come out of the Harbor.

The Chokers, with Dan Melinkovich at the helm, climaxed a splendid season by flying to Hutchinson, Kansas, and competing in the National Junior College Tournament in which they captured eleventh place.

Melinkovich's club, in addition to their national recognition, claimed the Region III crown by defeating Vanport and Olympic Junior College. They also won the state title by trouncing Yakima in two straight tilts, and they held the top rung in the Southern Division of the state league losing only to Clark. The Chokers finished the season with an overall record of 24 wins and 6 losses.

Kneeling: Don Anderson, Darryl Crait, Ron Urquhart.

Acting President of GHC, Maurice J. Phipps, will again be at the helm of this year's spring golf team. Last year's team came out about even in the won and lost column, holding matches with Centralia, Everett, and St. Martins, as well as participating in the state tournament at Longview.

This year's team found only one returning letterman, Darryl Crait.

ASQC Officers

Jerry Layman, president; Charlotte Chamberlin, secretary; Darryl Crait, treasurer; Anne Malinowski, vice president.

Under the leadership of Jerry Layman, this year's executive council guided all the student body activities. Anne Malinowski successfully promoted and scheduled the assemblies. The group also made up and carried out a budget which, through the efforts of Darryl Crait, came out in the black for the first time in many years. They also sponsored the annual Homecoming events, the Days of '49, the school picnic, and the two formals.

A new process was used by the Timberline this year. The monthly paper was typed on an IBM electric machine and then the copies were duplicated by offset lithography. The Nautilus staff chose a smaller size for this year's annual. All of the printing was done by the students in the school print shop, using the letterpress process.

Forensics

At the opening meet at CPS, Jerry Layman placed second in extempore. At Linfield three speakers won places in the "tournament of champions": Gerry Larson took second place in oratory; JoLoyce Hunter, second in interpretative reading; and Layman placed third in extempore.

At the National Meet, held in Pueblo, Colorado, the debate team of Elsie Schiller and Jerry Layman placed third in a field of strong competition while Layman took second place in extempore. Gerry Larson and Harold Warren also made good showings in their respective events. At the St. Martin's tourney, Layman and Shiller garnered another third place in debate.

The climax of the season was the State Junior College Meet where the local group took six first place cups, two second places, and four third places to win the sweepstakes for the third consecutive year. Bob McCrea and Harold Warren finished a good season by taking second place in debate at this final meet.

Others contributing to the victory of the squad were Don Egge and John Blaine. Professor A. J. Hillier, coach in debate, oratory, and extempore, accompanied the group to all tournaments.
