Dedication

Mr. Alfred J. Hillier, outstanding educator and beloved instructor of history and forensics, has done more for the development of Grays Harbor College and the forensics program in the junior colleges of Washington than anyone we know.

Mr. Hillier came to Grays Harbor College in the fall of 1931 when our college was only one year old. In 1950 he was named Dean of the Faculty by the Board of Education.

During the past eleven years his forensic students have participated in the national junior college tournaments sponsored by Phi Rho Pi. The many trophies won by his teams show the untiring efforts and guidance of their beloved coach.

Because of Mr. Hillier's forensic work in Washington State, there are now five chapters of Phi Rho Pi, National Honorary Forensics Fraternity for Junior Colleges, in the state. Moreover, he was recently elected president of the Washington State forensic coaches and has served as national president of Phi Rho Pi. During his term of office, Grays Harbor was host to the national tournament in 1959.

At the annual award assembly this spring, the student union building was officially named the A. J. Hillier Union Building, to be known as the HUB.

Not only is Mr. Hillier a leader in education, literally putting our college on the map, but he is active in community affairs, and his influence and inspiration to his forensic teams and to his colleagues have won him a lasting place in the hearts of students and faculty.

To Mr. Alfred J. Hillier we sincerely dedicate the 1961 Nautilus in appreciation of the untiring and able assistance that he has given to the students of Grays Harbor College during the past thirty years.

The President's Message

Students and Faculty of Grays Harbor College:

I am pleased to have this opportunity to express these words of greeting and good wishes in your 1961 Nautilus.

Each Yearbook serves as a historical document portraying the life of the institution for an academic year. As one looks through its pages, people and events that have faded in memory are revived. Frequently one looks into a Nautilus to find a picture of a college friend, a club, an event, an athletic team, or a professor.

My congratulations to the graduating sophomores. I hope that every one of you will successfully continue his search for education.

My best wishes to the freshmen. I look forward to seeing many of you back at Grays Harbor College next year.

I would like personally to thank the faculty and students for their wonderful cooperation during the school year. Also, I offer my sincere congratulations to the annual staff for an excellent job on the Yearbook.

This year's student body was represented by a fine council. The elected officers were as follows: President, Don White; vice-president, Vern Heikkela; secretary, Wyllis Warwick; treasurer, Stayna Degg, and A.W.S. president Frances Schoonmaker. The appointed commissioners were Judy Fisher, Marilyn Nordlund, Glenn Garner and Emery Haggin. The council met on Wednesday of every week to discuss the affairs of the student body and to plan the various activities to be sponsored by the council. Mr. Phipps, the director of Student Affairs, served as advisor for the council. Some of the projects sponsored by the council were the winter formal, the faculty dinner, the spring function, the homecoming events and many others that were enjoyed by all. Each council member contributed to the success of these projects. We can all be proud of the 1960-61 student council that served us at Grays Harbor College.

A.W.S.

The Associated Womens Students enjoyed a busy, successful year under the leadership of Frances Schoonmaker, president; Sharon Moore, vice-president; Margaret Philbrick, secretary-treasurer; and Marion Sell, social chairman. District chairmen and district social chairmen were elected at the beginning of the school year. District chairmen were: Janice Helseth, district I; Janet Young, district II; Dolores Gross, district III, and Marjorie Winterhalter, district IV. District social chairmen were: Ruth Landstrom, district I; Barbara Emmerich, district II; Judy Hubble, district III, and Rogene McGeathy, district IV. Miss Jeanne Jones is the advisor.

A Father-Daughter Banquet was held in December honoring the girls' fathers and the male faculty members. The program consisted of several musical numbers and a talk by President Smith. Approximately 100 were in attendance.

The student union building was decorated by the A. W. S. for the Christmas holidays. Stockings hanging from the fireplace and a painted nativity scene were among the decorations.

Four social hours were sponsored for the entire student body throughout the year to fill in the empty weekends. The third social hour was held during the spring function with a Hawaiian theme.

The council, accompanied by Miss Jones and Miss Berk attended the A. W. S. convention held at the University of Washington in February. About 250 girls were in attendance from Washington and Idaho colleges.

Eight college girls were selected as "Girls of the Month" by the council on the basis of the girls' participation in college activities.

The Mothers' Tea was held May 7, honoring all college students' mothers, women faculty, and faculty wives. Included on the program were musical numbers, interpretive readings, installation of officers, and the presentation of trophies to the girls of the month. The guest of honor at this year's tea was Mrs. A. J. Hillier.

Plays

Music Department

The Grays Harbor College Music Department, under the direction of Mr. Eugene Stensager and Mr. Gaylord Hinze, had a very active and successful year.

Mr. Hinze's pep band provided the music for many of our home football and basketball games. Mr. Stensager's choir performed at various school functions and for several civic organizations.

The music department put on assemblies at high schools throughout Grays Harbor County. Taking part in these performances were the choir, brass ensemble, trombone quartet, a "pop" group, and the Gaynotes.

1960 Homecoming

Under the chairmanship of Margaret Philbrick and Zoe Nagrodski and through the guidance of the faculty, Homecoming 1960 was very successful. Attendance records were set at all the activities. Friday night, October 28, Don White introduced the Homecoming Court: Zoe Nagrodski, Frances Schoonmaker, Joan Winiecki and Judy Fisher. President Smith crowned Patti Potts as queen of the festivities. A standing-room-only crowd witnessed entertainment presented by Charlotte Prosis, Beth Carossino, Cam Heath, Carleen Johansen, Roger Mandery and Randy Williams. The college Gaynotes, and a skit consisting of faculty members, Mr. Crait, Mr. Enrico, Mr. Hillier, Mr. Messmer and Mr. Spellman was directed by Della Wakefield. The Grays Harbor College Choir concluded the Homecoming Revue with the audience participating in the singing of the "Alma Mater."

Saturday at Stewart Field the Chokers played one of their finest games of the season before a crowd-packed stadium. Pat O'Conner and Bob Izzi made touchdowns while Larry Scoval made the extra point to score 13-0 by halftime. Team effort finally subdued Olympic Junior College by a score of 13-7. Queen Patti Potts and her court were honored on the "Cruise d'amour" in the Cub where Ken Gillies played sentimental sea chanties. Faculty, alumni, and students agreed as they crossed the gangplank to the shore that Homecoming 1960 had truly been a boatload of memories.

Football

The Grays Harbor College football team enjoyed a highly successful season.

The Chokers finished the season with four hard-fought wins and three close losses.

The Chokers opened against Everett J.C. at home and lost a heartbreaking 13-12 decision. The next week they traveled to Pasco and lost a 20-0 game to the Basinites. The game was much closer than the score indicated, however. The next home game was against Wenatchee and the Chokers won it 13-7. The Chokers played the Lower Columbia Red Devils and trounced them by a 20-0 score. They played Yakima next and shut them out 13-0.

The Homecoming game was played against the Olympic College Rangers, the Chokers winning it in resounding fashion, 13-7. The last game of the season took place against unbeaten Oregon Tech and the Chokers led most of the way before losing 26-19 in the final minute of play.

Basketball

The Grays Harbor College Chokers enjoyed a successful 14-11 basketball season. The squad was one of the most exciting to come out of the Harbor area in many years and excelled in coming from behind and winning close games. The Chokers won all but two games at home but won only two on the road where it seemed almost impossible for them to win.

The Chokers were paced by six-foot New Yorker, Dave Mahlman, who averaged over 20 points a game with his varied assortment of shots. Dave also made the all-Conference team. Another man of great skill was LeRoy Butler, the six-foot-two guard from West Virginia. LeRoy specialized in long jump shots and with his deceptive speed drove for many easy lay-ins. George Raines, six-foot-two forward from Montesano, kept the Chokers in many games with his short hooks and jumpers. The big rebounder of the team was six-foot-five, 225-pounder Don Entus from Wishkah, who at times showed a good scoring touch. The other guard spot was held down by a tricky ball handler, Denny Oman from Ilwaco.

Top subs on the team were Rick Fisher, the adept passer from Aberdeen; Roy Frizzell from Montesano; Jerry Hatton from Ocosta; Mike Holmes, Portland; Larry Morris, Hoquiam, and Denny LaCroix, Hoquiam.
