Foreword

Grays Harbor College was incorporated into the Aberdeen school district in August, 1930, and the first students were enrolled the following month. The college has been in operation since that time, although its location has changed. In 1941 the school became a state college under the junior college law passed in that year. In 1945 GHC moved to the Samuel Benn school where it remained until January of this year.

At that time the new Grays Harbor College was occupied and is now in full operation. With these new facilities in mind, the 1958 Nautilus is designed to give present students something to look back upon and prospective students a fine school to look forward to.

Dedication

It is to the new Grays Harbor College campus, one of the finest in the state, that we dedicate this 1958 Nautilus.

Because of the new, improved facilities, the students now at Grays Harbor and those who will attend in the future will find that a greater degree of learning can be achieved. The new campus will always serve as a milestone of education in this area. Here students can enjoy a real college atmosphere on a big-college campus away from the main part of town. Here also students and faculty can maintain college life as it should be.

The President's Message

Students and Faculty of Grays Harbor College:

I am pleased to have this opportunity to express these words of greeting and good wishes in your 1958 Nautilus.

First, my congratulations to the graduating sophomores. I would like to see you often on our campus in future years, and I hope that each and every one of you will successfully continue his search for education.

Second, my best wishes to the freshmen. I look forward to seeing many of you back at Grays Harbor College next year.

Third, I would like personally to thank the faculty and students for their wonderful cooperation during the school year. Also I offer my sincere congratulations to the annual staff for an excellent job on the yearbook.

I am pleased with our new site and buildings, and look forward to a bright future for the college.

FORENSICS

During the past years Grays Harbor College forensics teams, under the able leadership of Mr. Hillier, have consistently garnered regional and national honors. This year's squad was no exception. Participating in four tournaments, the 1958 team excelled in most events. Gayle Egge reached the oratory finals at Seattle Pacific, CPS, and Linfield College, site of the regional tournament. Ron Roberts and Dick Shumway placed third in debate at CPS. Andrew Carlson reached the finals in interpretive reading at CPS and Linfield. Kathy Hansen placed third in extemporaneous speaking at the regional meet.

Highlight of the year was the national Phi Rho tournament at Hutchinson, Kansas.

THE ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

Jeanette Graham, secretary-treasurer; Varian Keller, president; Carolyn Jauhola, vice-president.

The Associated Women Students consists of all the girls at Grays Harbor College.

During the past year the Associated Women Students has been under the leadership of Varian Keller, president, who was assisted by Carolyn Jauhola, vice-president, and Jeanette Graham, secretary-treasurer. They were elected at the end of the last school year and will hold office for the whole year.

The group began the school year with a tea to help the new girls get acquainted.

Other activities of the year included bake sales, a dance, the Christmas "Toys for Tots" program and an annual spring tea which was held in honor of the mothers of all the college students.

Miss Irene Campbell is the advisor for the group.

Student Council

The Student Council, led by Joe Malik, is the executive body for student government at Grays Harbor College. The council consists of all student body officers and the appointed commissioners. The members are Joe Malik, Jerry Johnson, Carol Reinhart, Kathy Hansen, Wally Metzger, Larry Hubacka, Ray Hajduk, Oliver (Punk) Smith, Varian Keller, Bill Maynard, Carolyn Hamilton, Gayle Egge, and Betty Conley.

This group decides upon the budget, social events, activities, and policies affecting the students throughout the school year.

ACTIVITIES

IN

NEW YORK

The annual GHC Homecoming festivities started with a talent review which took place at the Miller Auditorium on Friday night, October 25. The first event of the program was the crowning of the queen, Karen Brunstrom from Hoquiam, by Mr. Edward P. Smith. Members of the court were Bebe Rehm and Patty Peterson from Aberdeen, Katherine Hanson from Hoquiam, and Varian Keller from Raymond.

Talent included a tap dance by Judy Fenner, pantomimes by Dorothy Easter and Addison Ames, a piano solo by Richard Mattler, and numbers by the college choir and the college dance band directed by Eugene Stensager. The Harbor Lights, a boys' quartet from Hoquiam, composed of Mike Corrigan, Bob Harrison, Perry Herron and Bill Wieland sang a few numbers. A play called "If Men Played Cards the Way Women Do" was presented by an all male cast.

Autumn in New York was the theme of the dance which took place after the game on Saturday night. The dance was the last event of Homecoming.

WINTER

"Red Silhouettes," this year's winter formal, was held February 14 in the CUB.

The theme was carried out in the traditional colors of Valentine's Day—red and white. Above the lighted fireplace the words "Red Silhouettes" were written. Plush red hearts were placed on either side of this lettering.

FORMAL

The pillars throughout the room were entwined with red crepe paper and topped with red and white balloons. At one corner of the room stood a large red and white heart which functioned as a background for photographs taken of couples attending the dance.

The music was furnished by the Raindrops. During intermission the Harborlights, a local quartet, entertained the crowd with several numbers.

"The Solid Gold Cadillac"

The fall play, "The Solid Gold Cadillac," was presented by the GHC drama class under the direction of Mr. Russell Scott. This amusing two-act comedy starred Gayle Egge, Charles Watson, Judy Messer, Dale Fishel, Neil Linder, Dick Candey, Darryl Davis, and Andrew Carlson.

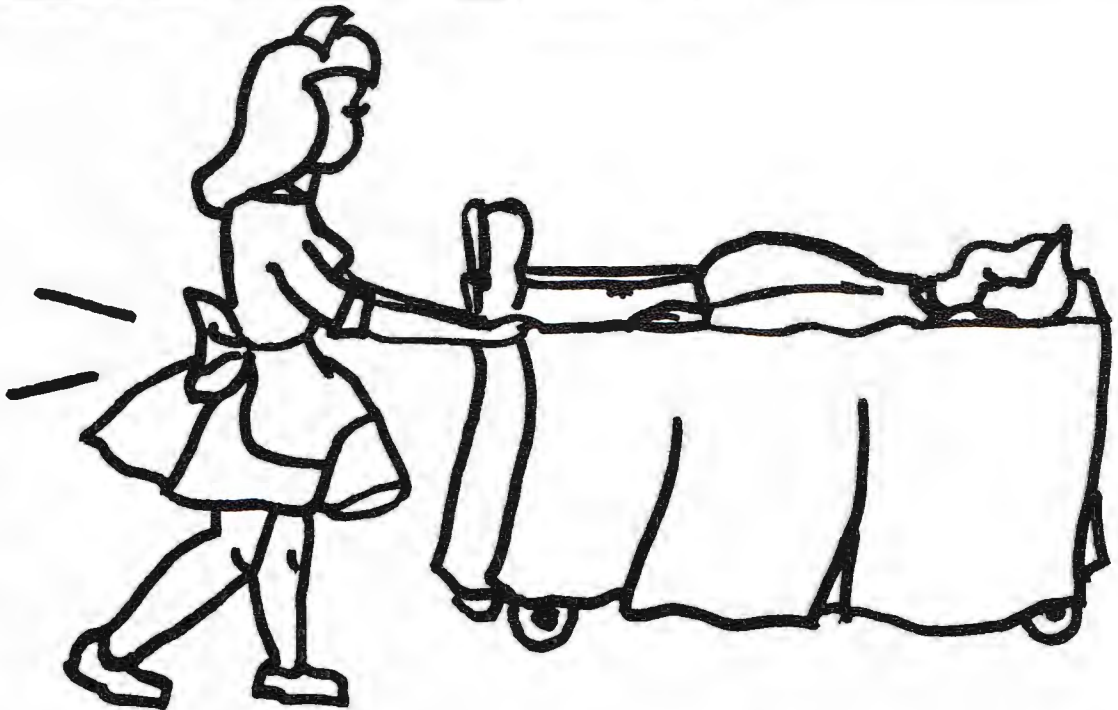

Mary Curry, Neil Linder, Chuck Wetzel, Gayle Egge.

"The Importance of Being Earnest"

The first play to be presented in the new college studio was Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest." This delightful comedy, directed by Mr. Russell Scott, played to a full house for two nights.

Members of the cast included Gayle Egge, Judy Messer, Mary Curry, Carol Fisher, Neil Linder, Chuck Wetzel, Darryl Davis, Richard Candey and Andrew Carlson.

A game, but short on reserve strength, Choker squad finished the 1957 season tied for fifth place in the state junior college league. A trip to Bakersfield JC highlighted the season for a team that was exciting to watch even when losing..

For a team lacking in height, the Grays Harbor College basketball team did not want for determination. Finishing the season with a 9 won, 9 lost league record, the Chokers defeated every conference opponent at least once except for champion Columbia Basin and Olympic.
