Gray Harbor College is a small, liberal arts college located on the coast of the Puget Sound, about twenty miles from the college town of Everett. It is situated on a narrow, fertile alluvial crack where both ocean and river waters abound.

The second growth timber on the surrounding hillsides has been cut and removed during the last five years. This presents an excellent opportunity for biologists from the college to study the succession of plants and animals that develop in the barren cut-over land. Botany students have begun projects to study the effects of various environmental factors on Douglas fir, hemlock, and western red cedar. Two weather stations have been set up in the area at different altitudes to provide weather data.

It has been said that the entrance to Gray Harbor College resembles that of a lumber camp. A mass of unkempt trees and foliage runs from hillside to harbor. Yet, amidst the clutter and paradox, this is GHC's most unique asset.

A single tree, shown in the three periods of autumn, winter, and spring, has been selected as the symbol of this yearbook. It represents all the natural beauty that surrounds the students as they attend Gray Harbor College during those seasons.

It is to the majesty and the serenity of the forest that this 1967-68 Nauticus is dedicated.

ADMINISTRATION
STAFF

I would like to extend my congratulations to the Nautilus staff for an outstanding yearbook. Each spring, students and faculty anticipate with pleasure the distribution of the annual. It never fails to evoke significant memories of the past year which all of us cherish.

Personally, I am most grateful for the success the college has enjoyed during the year; much of this success can be attributed to the Board of Trustees. All signs point toward an improved program of instruction in the future. Certainly this promise sustains us, for we exist for no other reason than to make education more meaningful for our student population.

I wish the departing sophomores continued success in their endeavors; I urge the freshmen to pursue their goals with determination and patience. I know that your stay at Grays Harbor College will be a significant experience in your lives.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

This year was an active one for Grays Harbor College. Its controlling body, the Student Council, met weekly to discuss policy and transact business of the student body. Each member of the student council took his job seriously and represented the student body in a fair and just manner. All members consistently expressed their opinions intelligently and effectively. They made the Student Council's job and my job much easier by their seriousness of purpose and full cooperation. The Student Council's accomplishments were many and varied, ranging from the establishment of Freshman representation to putting on the best Homecoming in GHC history; thus the members can be proud of their record and content with their performance. Mr. Phipps, Director of Student Affairs, served as advisor to the council. His services were indispensable and I can't express how grateful I am for his help.

It was a pleasure and honor to serve as student body president. I want to thank all of the students for their confidence and cooperation, and the Student Council for a job well done. I am proud to have served as your president, proud of your many accomplishments, and proud to say I am an alumnus of Grays Harbor College.

AWS

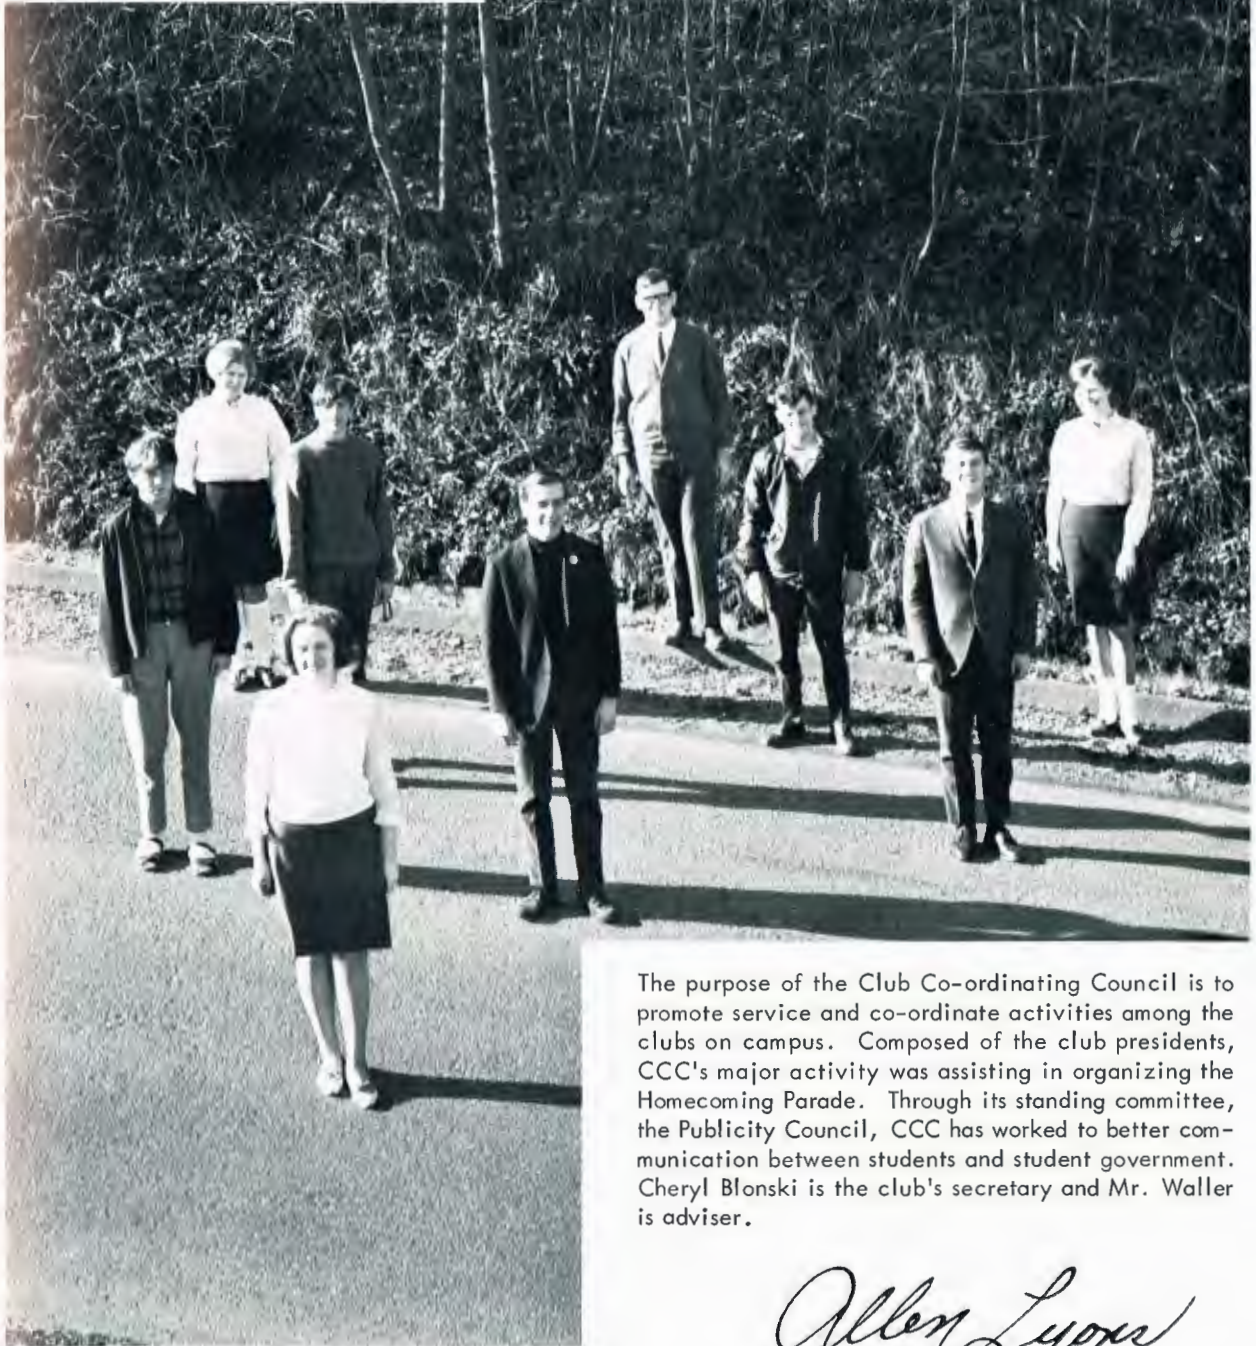

The Associated Women's Students had a very active year. Adding to the fun of homecoming weekend, AWS sponsored a Halloween pajama party with the theme "Punkins and P.J.'s". At Christmas time the Miss Merry Christmas project was a huge success with all the food donations given to the Salvation Army. Throughout the months a girl of the month is selected for her outstanding scholarship, activities, and personality. In the spring, elections were held. AWS also participated in Drift 'n' Dunes weekend. Ending the year, came the Mothers Tea, where the Girl of the Year was named along with the Mother of the Year.

CCC

The purpose of the Club Co-ordinating Council is to promote service and co-ordinate activities among the clubs on campus. Composed of the club presidents, CCC's major activity was assisting in organizing the Homecoming Parade. Through its standing committee, the Publicity Council, CCC has worked to better communication between students and student government. Cheryl Blonski is the club's secretary and Mr. Waller is adviser.

As always, Ayudas attempted to fulfill its purpose as a service club to the college. The club's officers were: Carolyn Langham, president; Gail Warden, vice-president; Nikki Chapin, treasurer; Barbara Zink, secretary; Carol Meers, publicity representative. Ayudas worked at registration, football games, basketball games, and wrestling matches, as well as the athletic banquets. The club sponsored a float for the Homecoming parade and held a mum sale for the Homecoming game. A dance was held winter quarter. In all their affairs, Ayudas was especially helped by the club's adviser, Dr. Pedersen.

CHOKERETTES

Chokerettes had an action-packed year. To promote school spirit we made pep signs for the games and the pep assembly. We also made a float in the shape of a football for the homecoming parade. Other activities included a bakesale, a pizza party, a Christmas party (thanks Phil), and a trip to Seattle. At the end of the year we gave a $100 scholarship to a deserving Chokerette. The 1967-68 officers were: Ann Mackey, president; Diane Manenica, vice-president; and Barb Morrisette, secretary-treasurer. The adviser was Miss Thomas.

“papa is all”

The play "Papa Is All" was concerned with a rebellion against a tyrannical father who misused his religion to prohibit the natural pleasures of his family. It presented a unique challenge, for the entire play was spoken in the language of the Pennsylvania Dutch people. Playing the lead roles were Al Lyons and Sue Roman.

DRAMATICS

"The Child Buyer", a drama, was selected for the winter play. Wissey Jones, the main character, had a plan for improving the nation. It involved purchasing gifted children and reducing their personalities through drugs and surgery to the point that they were nothing more than brilliantly efficient machines. Playing the leads were Al Lyons and Joe Dennis.

Once again members of the GHC squad placed in both individual events and debate, bringing home an impressive assortment of trophies for the college showcase.

FORENSICS

Members of Delta Psi Omega performed in a variety of theatrical experiences this year. Performing and producing three campus productions including the "Thurber Carnival" spring quarter. the Greatest Homecoming 1967 at Grays Harbor College consisted of a complete turn about in which the Spokane Spartans wiped out a 12-6 G.H.C. lead and made off with a 22-12 victory before disappointed on-lookers. Highlighting G.H.C.'s loss was quarterback John Wilson, who ran 53 yards on a quarterback draw, his finest passing and running effort of the year. Defensively, Larry Miller, Rick Harbour and Bill Sowders made numerous key hits. Arnie Blancas was the most effective of the G.H.C. running backs by gaining a total of 64 yards.

Grays Harbor College sent a delegation of eight students to the XVIII Model United Nations of the Far West, held at the University of Arizona in Tucson. Representing the Republic of Singapore in the Afro-Asian Bloc, these students took an active part in debate and the passing of resolutions. This is the sixth year that GHC has taken part in MUN; all who participated agree that it is truly a unique educational experience.

The biggest Christmas festivity of the year for Grays Harbor College students was the annual Merry Christmas dance, highlighted by the selection of Rita DePoule as Miss Merry Christmas. A canned food drive determined who was to be Miss Merry Christmas, by having voters contribute cans as ballots for his or her favorite candidate. Each candidate was sponsored by a college club.

The Choker football edition of 1967, under the excellent coaching of Leo "Bud" Hake and assistant coaches Bob Basich and Dick Frazer, ended the season with a 7-2 record.

Choker scoring was led by Arnie Blancas, state scoring champ, and by Norris Stussy. The Choker offense was also aided by such hard running backs as Ben Dew, Ray Lorton, and Joe Suppa; the passing and running of John Wilson, and the pass catching talents of Eddie Smith and Don Scheaffer.

Nevertheless, this great offensive machine could not have performed without the offensive line which was led by Ron Busche, Jerry Sherk, and Bill Gutman.

Helping the offense control the ball was the Choker defense headed by Lawrence Miller, Bill Sowders, Rick Harber, Eddie Smith, Gary Carr, and Bruce Edwards.

Arnie Blancas, Lawrence Miller, Ron Busche, and Jerry Sherk made the All-Conference team.

High-lighting the annual banquet was the presentation of the Inspirational award to Norris Stussy; Coaches award to Paul Wetzel; Co-captains award to Rick Harber and Bill Sowders; and the announcement of next year's team captain-Larry Miller.

This year's Choker basketball team was picked at the first of the season to finish in the lower division, but the team disregarded this, and came out in the first division. However, Lower Columbia's triumph in the final week blew all hopes of the GHC team going on to the state tournament. Finishing with a 8-14 record, the Chokers showed great strength as they defeated a highly rated Green River squad and all the other division leaders many headaches. Led by team captain Mike Armstrong and Gary Carr, who both supported 17 pt. average, and had several 30 pt. nights, the Chokers showed a well-planned offense and defense. They were assisted by playmaker John Wilson, Randy Cottrell, and Craig McGuire, who all averaged in double figures. Cottrell and Armstrong were the top Choker rebounders.

delegation to state:

ROW 1: K. Kanno, D. Stark, M. Moyer, M. Tanner, B. Grim. ROW 2: B. Davis, B. Hayden, S. Scibelli, G. Stevenson, B. Dew, J. Sherk.

This year, Coach Gary Frey and wrestlers captured their second consecutive state championship. During the season, the Chokers suffered only two defeats.

Highlights of the season for the team were capturing the Junior College Class Championship in the U. of W. tournament, and showing great strength in the Grays Harbor Invitational Tournament.

Leading the Chokers at the State Tournament, this year held in Aberdeen, was last year's state heavyweight champ, Jerry Sherk. Sherk once again was first place along with 115 lb. Kenichi Kanno, 145 lb. Bob Grim, and 152 lb. Brad Davis. Others who helped win the title were runners-up: Steve Scibelli, Gary Stevenson, and Ben Dew; and Dan Stark who placed fourth in his weight class.

staff

Pep staffs in past years have been plagued by lack of organization, and lack of enthusiasm from the student body. I believe, however, that this year has been a great improvement from the past. Evidence of this was apparent during the homecoming festivities and throughout the school year.

Working as a unit is, at times, quite difficult when trying to fill the needs of a large group, and often things do not work out as they are planned.

Nevertheless, Kathy, Gretchen, Mary and I considered it both a great honor and a wonderful experience to serve as GHC's pep staff.

GRADUATE STUDENTS

Although they have not actually graduated as yet, these people are only a few of the many students at GHC who seem to like the place so much they refuse to leave. It is with extreme regret that the Nautilus staff was not able to picture the "King of all Graduate Students,"---J.C. King.

John Carl, Jack Sleasman, Dave Giles, Roger Bitner, Ed Wolkiewicz, Terry Church, Sue Frazer, Mike Alecksey, Val Cummings.

What is Grays Harbor College? The Nautilus Staff has tried to present all of the high-points of the year 1967-68. However, life still goes on between Homecoming and the Miss Merry Christmas Dance. Therefore, on the next pages we have added a few more ideas to our definition of a year at GHC. What is Grays Harbor College?

Near the sea that flows along,
 Stands our school so firm and strong.
 Through the years we'll think of you,
 G.H.C. the gray and blue.
 Though the years may all go by
 G.H.C. will never die,
 She will live in our memory,
 She will live in our memory.
 Sing her praises one and all
 Let them echo through the hall,
 Alma Mater G.H.C.
 This we sing to thee.

To the student, an annual is a timely little keepsake to be glanced through once or twice and then stored away for future spells of nostalgia. It is handed to him complete - finished - a tidy collection of memories from one year at school.

But to an editor, an annual is something else. It is 128 pages that must be filled with ideas - some gathered from previous yearbooks, others devised by himself. It is an unwieldy mound of photographs, copy sheets, rough drafts, and carbon paper, all glued together with rubber cement, the fumes of which become more potent with each passing deadline.

For this editor, it meant hauling a photographer around the library to take pictures of 65 unwilling freshmen; it was calling a fire drill one autumn day so that everyone could be present for the endsheet picture; it was working in a deserted 400 wing on week ends and listening to the dance music which floated up from the Hub. Most important, it was a two quarter class in human relations, an experience I will never forget.

Of course, such a project cannot be accomplished by a single individual. I am thankful for an understanding adviser, Mrs. Barbara Elliott, and a hard-working staff including its Business Manager, Vicki Wakefield. Recognition must also be given to the club presidents who wrote the copy for their organizations and to everyone who ultimately squeezed into the pictures.

Like the school it represents, the Nautilus has undergone many changes since its beginning over 35 years ago. An early version of the publication had only four pictures, three of which were pasted in. This year, more activities were included, and more space allotted to both organizations and sports. A brave attempt was made to get away from pictures with row upon row of faces staring blankly from the pages.

The junior college annual holds a unique place between that of the high school and the enormous volume of most four-year institutions. It need not be bound by pointless tradition, but instead may be presented on a more personal level.

So take this book; it was made for you. And I hope with all my heart that you enjoy it.
